

The Scottish Clans and Associations Council Incorporated

Website Information Sheet

The SCAC has put together a website that is proving to be most informative and popular but we need your input.

The website is available to view at www.scottishclansandassociations.org . If you click on Clan List and check if your clan or Associations details are present and correct. If they are not fill in this form and inform the Secretary if your clan or association is not listed and any additions or subtractions are required in those that are listed.

(You may also include a link to your overseas parent website if you wish and where possible please have a link to the SCAC website)

You can forward your Clan or Association newsletter to the Secretary for inclusion within your individual site (In Word or PDF format) .

Members may also have any Clan or Association events advertised within 'What's on in 2009 and all the latest news and gossip'

If you do not want your contact details listed please notify the Secretary and any enquiries can be directed through that avenue.

Snippets of events organized by SCAC may be videotaped for inclusion on the SCAC website e.g. Annual Lunch, Kirkin o' the Tartan, Clan and Association tents at Highland gatherings. It is not anticipated that there will be close-up shots on the video, unless authorized and fitting the occasion, but an overall concept so that visitors to the site will have an appreciation of the type of activity held at our gatherings.

If any member has a concern about being in any overview, please notify the Secretary and every effort will be made to exclude that member from exposure. If requested, any member may view any segment before inclusion on the SCAC website.

We love and appreciate feedback so please notify the Secretary if you have any suggestions or ideas how we can improve our SCAC website.
